

Bernice Durand

VITAE

PRESENT POSITION:

University of Wisconsin - Madison
Vice Provost for Diversity and Climate, Senior Diversity Officer
Professor of Physics

AWARDS AND HONORS:

Wisconsin Alumni Association Cabinet 99 Award, 2002 (biennial $10,000 award for outstanding contributions to the university, a commitment to increasing opportunities for women, and a reputation for leadership, tenacity, and courage)

Chancellor's Recognition for Outstanding Contributions to Campus Diversity, 2002

Chancellor's Award for Excellence in Teaching, 1993

American Men and Women of Science, Who's Who in America,
Who's Who of American Women

SPECIALTY AREA:

Theoretical physics; high-energy physics; elementary particle interactions; topology and geometry in field theory

EDUCATION:

B.S. Iowa State University, 1965, Physics; minors in Mathematics and Modern Languages (first 2.5 years at Radcliffe College)

Ph.D. Iowa State University, 1971, Physics; minor in Mathematics

PREVIOUS POSITIONS:

University of Wisconsin – Madison Department of Physics
Associate Professor, 1986-92; Assistant Professor, 1977-86;
Lecturer (half-time) and Research Associate, 2 yrs FTE, 1970-77

Iowa State University, Ames Lab AEC
Teaching Assistant 1967-70; Summer Research Assistant, 1958-61

VISITING POSITIONS:

Fermi National Accelerator Laboratory
Guest Scientist, 1973, academic year 1982-83; Visiting Scientist, six months, 1984

Los Alamos Scientific Laboratory
Visiting staff member, various periods 1975, 1976, 1983, 1984

California Institute of Technology
Visitor, two months, 1978

Institute for Advanced Study, Princeton
Visiting Member, academic year, 1975-76

PROFESSIONAL SOCIETIES:

American Physical Society, 1969--
Divisions of Particles and Fields, Physics and Society, History of Physics, Committee on the Status of Women 2005-07
Sigma Xi, 1971 --
American Association of University Professors, 1972--
Sigma Delta Epsilon, Graduate Women in Science, 1973--
American Association for the Advancement of Science, 1973--
Wisconsin Academy of Sciences, Art and Letters, 1978—

PERSONAL:

Nationality: U.S.
Birthdate: December 28, 1942, Clarion, Iowa
Marital status: Married Loyal Durand, October 18, 1970