

1966 CHRYSLER DATA BOOK

About This Book: The information in this book is arranged in sections that correspond with each of Chrysler's car series: New Yorker, 300, Newport and Town & Country Wagons, plus separate sections tabbed "Features, Equip., Specifications" and "Engineering" that contain information about all Chrysler cars, regardless of the series. Under each of the car-series tabs, such as New Yorker, you will find a summary of engines and transmissions, and interior, exterior and safety features that are standard with that particular car. Under the "Features, Equip., and Specifications" and "Engineering" tabs, you will find detailed information about the features and options, standard and optional equipment charts, specifications and mechanical features and their benefits for all Chrysler cars. Step-cut pages within each tabbed section will help you turn quickly to the specific information you are looking for.

The Information In This Book was compiled by Ross Roy, Inc., 2751 East Jefferson Avenue, Detroit, Michigan 48207. This independently owned and operated organization has had more than 35 years of experience in gathering, compiling, verifying and publishing information about automobiles.

Statistical information in this book is based on official specifications compiled for the Automobile Manufacturers Association, and is considered accurate but not guaranteed, as of date of publication.
